

2018 Carson City Frontier Days Queen Contest

Carson City Frontier Days, Inc. invites you to participate in the 2018 Queen Contest. Instead of hosting an actual pageant, interested participants will create a portfolio to be considered by a panel of judges. Please review the entry qualifications on the reverse side to see if you are eligible to participate. There is no entry fee for the contest.

Portfolio Contents:

Completed Application
Photograph
1 Letter of Recommendation
Designated Questions
Essay

Your completed application can be handwritten. The submitted photograph should be a headshot of the participant. This can be a school picture or a selfie. Please be sure only the participant is in the photograph. The letter of recommendation can be from any adult. Suggestions include a teacher, coach, or a boss at work. Your answers to the designated questions and the essay must be typed and double-spaced. See the attached for more specific details.

Presentation:

The completed pieces must be turned in on the due date in a folder, presentation sleeve, or binder.

Due Date:

The finished product must be turned in to City Hall by 5 p.m. on Friday, March 30, 2018. If you decide to mail your portfolio, it must arrive to the address by the same date. The mailing address is as follows:
Carson City Frontier Days, Inc.
P.O. Box 340
Carson City, MI 48811

Announcement of Queen:

The Queen will be announced on Monday, April 9, 2018, via the Carson City Frontier Days Facebook page and on the Carson City Frontier Days website. The winner will also be contacted by telephone. All other participants will be notified by letter.

2018 Carson City Frontier Days Queen Contest Entry Qualifications

1. Contestants must reside in the Carson City-Crystal School District.
2. Contestants must be of or between the ages of 14-19 years.
3. Contestants must not be married, divorced or co-habiting with a male in lieu of marriage.
4. Contestants must not be pregnant or ever been pregnant.
5. Contestants cannot be suspended or expelled from school at the time of the pageant, nor during her reign.
6. Former Frontier Days Queens will not be eligible to compete in the pageant.
7. The winner will be required to complete 25 hours of community service, including events during the Frontier Days weekend like the Community Picnic, Grand Parade, and Health & Safety Day. Other events will take place throughout the year. Once the winner is chosen, she will meet with the committee to go over these tasks more specifically.
8. Once chosen, the Queen may not hold or run for any other title during her reign (excluding special school functions or events).
9. The Frontier Days Queen must remove all visible body jewelry during her representation of the crown, excluding earrings. All tattoos must be covered.
10. If a contestant has charges brought against her in a court of law while participating in the pageant process, including the reign of the chosen Queen, she will be dismissed from participation. This includes but is not limited to misdemeanors, felonies, truancy and lawsuits. Routine traffic violations do not count.
11. In the event of the Queen not being able to fulfill her duties, all awards and prizes must be relinquished to the next eligible contestant in line.
12. The Queen should always dress attractively when representing her crown. She has the option of wearing a gown or an attractive dress at parades. The Queen should wear her crown and sash for all appearances whenever she is representing Carson City Frontier Days. When not performing an assigned duty during the festival, neat and casual attire is acceptable. (No halter tops, tube tops, short shorts, or mini-skirts, please.)
13. Scholarship money will be awarded to the Queen at the conclusion of her reign if she has participated in all of the required events. All checks will be written to the winner. In the event that the Queen is excused from her title for any reason, the scholarship will be forfeited.
