

2019 Carson City Frontier Days Queen Contest

Carson City Frontier Days, Inc. invites you to participate in the 2019 Carson City Frontier Days Queen Contest. Interested participants are required to create and submit a portfolio that will be reviewed by a panel of judges. Please review the entry qualifications in this packet to determine if you are eligible to participate. There is no entry fee for the contest.

Portfolio Requirements:

Completed Entry Form
Photograph
Two (2) Letters of Recommendation
Short-Answer Questions
Essay Question

General Portfolio Rules:

1. The completed entry form can be either handwritten or typed.
2. The submitted photograph must be a headshot. You can use a school picture or a selfie. Be sure that the participant is the only person in the photograph. Please mount the photograph to a piece of paper that is included in the portfolio. No loose photographs – they are easily lost.
3. The letters of recommendation must be typed and from an adult. Suggestions for letter writers are teachers, coaches, advisors, and employers.
4. Answers to the short-answer questions and the essay question must be typed and double-spaced in a font that is easy to read. Use correct grammar and spelling. Stay within the word count. If these rules are not followed, your portfolio will receive major point deductions.

Portfolio Presentation:

Complete all portfolio requirements and place them in a folder, a binder, or a presentation sleeve.

Due Date:

Friday, March 15, 2019
Drop off at Carson City City Hall

Announcement of Queen:

The winner will be announced on Monday, March 25, 2019. The announcement will be made on the Carson City Frontier Days Facebook page and the Carson City Frontier Days website. The winner will also be contacted by telephone. All other participants will be notified by mail.

2019 Carson City Frontier Days Queen Contest Entry Qualifications

1. Participants must reside in the Carson City-Crystal School District.
2. Participants must be of or between the ages of 14-19 years.
3. Participants must not be married, divorced, or co-habiting with a male in lieu of marriage.
4. Participants must not be suspended or expelled from school at the time of the contest, nor during her reign.
5. Former Frontier Days Queens will not be eligible to compete in the contest.
6. The participant that is chosen as Frontier Days Queen will be required to complete 25 hours of community services, as well as assigned events during the Frontier Days weekend. These events during Frontier Days are, but not limited to the Community Picnic, Grand Parade, and Health & Safety Day. Other events will take place throughout the year. Once the winner is chosen, she will meet with the committee to go over these tasks more specifically.
7. Once chosen as the Frontier Days Queen, the Queen may not hold or run for any other title during her reign (excluding special school functions or events).
8. If a participant has charges brought against her in a court of law while participating in the contest, including the reign of the chosen Queen, she will be dismissed from the contest. This includes, but is not limited to misdemeanors, felonies, truancy, and lawsuits. Routine traffic violations do not count.
9. In the event of the Queen not being able to fulfill her duties, all awards and prizes must be relinquished to the next eligible participant in line.
10. The Queen should always dress attractively when representing her crown. She has the option of wearing a gown or an attractive dress at parades. The Queen should wear her crown and sash for all appearances whenever she is representing Carson City Frontier Days. When not performing an assigned duty during the Frontier Days Festival, neat and casual attire is acceptable. (No halter tops, tube tops, short shorts, or mini skirts, please.)
11. Scholarship money will be awarded to the Queen at the conclusion of her reign if she has participated in all of the required events and has completed all of her 25 hours of community service. All checks will be written directly to the winner. In the event that the Queen is excused from her title for any reason or if she has not participated in all assigned events or community service hours, the scholarship will be forfeited.
